

Foxwood Corporate Apartments – Client Testimonials

My wife and I own large Logistics Corporation in Mexico and we decided to launch business in the United States, choosing San Diego as our new target of operations. After exploring the area and laying out our business plan, we needed corporate housing for several Months. My wife found Foxwood Apartments, made an appointment and we went to view the place. The facilities were exactly what we needed, beautiful, clean and quiet, close to our area of operations and to both Borders. Without a doubt, I would strongly recommend Foxwood Apartments to anyone.

I'm an enlisted in the military. While on deployment I needed to arrange to have an apartment ready for when I got back to San Diego. Being on a ship makes it more difficult, but I was able to find Foxwood Apartments on-line, the staff was very helpful, And they helped me out with everything I needed. As soon as the ship got back to San Diego all I had to do was move in to my new home. “Thank you Foxwood Staff”

We live in Guadalajara Mexico. My wife and I decide to have our baby in the USA., Since we have family in town we decided to come to San Diego and our relatives referred us to Foxwood. The price was right and the complex is beautiful and quiet and their location for us was very convenient. We enjoyed our stay so much that we already made our reservation for next year...we are coming on vacation.

We have been coming to San Diego for the past 10 years running away from the freezing Minnesota winters. We have made Foxwood Apartments our winter home away from home. We love this place and we would not change this weather for the World.
